

Map Note:
 'Sensitive sites' are defined in Councils Legal Highs Policy 2014 (Local Approved Products Policy). The identification of sensitive sites is based on Councils understanding of the use of buildings in the area, at the time this map was issued, and may not reflect the current activities undertaken on a site. The buffer zones shown are indicative only and the precise distances will need to be confirmed with applicants once potential premises have been identified. Applicants are encouraged to contact Council to verify the information provided on this map is current and accurate for the premises being applied for
